INTRODUCTION

Issues pertaining to development of communication, media, information technology, environment, tourism, economy, politics, arts and heritage are all of fundamental importance in countries across the globe especially within countries gearing towards the developed nation status. The success in the implementation of these multi-discipline programs requires noble ideas from various professionals. As such, the organization of ICDETAH 2 is relevant in achieving this end.

The state of Terengganu is the ideal venue for this prestigious conference as it is also renowned for the centre of education or Knowledge Park. The conference hopes to illuminate awareness of fundamental issues in the realization of harmonious development as envisaged by the state government through the slogan "Transformation of New Terengganu".

OBJECTIVES

- Generate new perspectives and ideas within respective fields to the success of the New Terengganu Transformation.
- Explore and shaping the development of the communications, media and information technology, environment, tourism and heritage parallel to the transformation of nations.
- Present a platform for discussion and debate on issues pertaining to various fields for the enhancement of humanity.
